Volunteer:
Start where you are.
Use what you have.
Do what you can.

Homer Glen Junior Woman's Club is a non-profit founded in 2010 by a group of committed women with a vision. Their goal was to bring strong, dedicated women together to improve our community and enhance lives.

HGJWC is a local chapter of the General Federation of Woman's Clubs, an international organization that was founded in 1890. GFWC currently has over 10,000 members in over 4,000 clubs in all 50 states and 12 countries. Diverse in age, interests, and experience, the women of GFWC are united by a dedication to community improvement through volunteer service. GFWC truly celebrates its motto: Unity in Diversity.

GFWC accomplishments include: establishing 75 percent of the country's public libraries, developing Kindergartens in public schools, fighting for the implementation of seatbelt laws, working for food and drug regulation, and so much more.

Here's to strong women.

May we know them.

May we be them.

May we raise them.

HGJWC is a diverse group of adult women dedicated to enhancing our community through volunteer and philanthropic efforts. We are a non-profit that makes a difference, socializes and has fun.
