WHO ARE WE?

Homer Glen Junior Woman's Club is a non-profit founded in 2010 by a group of committed women with a vision. Their goal was to bring strong, dedicated women together to improve our community and enhance lives.

Homer Glen Junior Woman's Club is a diverse group of adult women dedicated to enhancing our community through volunteer and philanthropic efforts. We are a non-profit that makes a difference, socializes and has fun.

Homer Glen Junior Woman's Club is a local chapter of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, an international organization that was founded in 1890. With more than 60,000 members in affiliated clubs in every state, the District of Columbia, and more than a dozen countries,

GFWC members work in their own communities to support the arts, preserve natural resources, advance education, promote healthy lifestyles, and encourage civic involvement, issues related to domestic and sexual violence awareness/prevention, and advocating for children.
